BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Fr. Mr. Raghavendra Rao's representation to the above effect.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

1) Mr. Raghavendra Rao states that on his appointment as Probr Asst Commr from 18.1.1918 he was kept on in the Edn Dept till 16th March 1918 & there was not sufficient time for study and preparation for the local tests of 1918; that in the year 1919 he could not sit for the tests as he had an attack of typhoid and that in the current year he has appeared for the 4 tests. He requests that in order to meet a contingency in case of failure in one or more tests this year he may be given two more chances & that his relative rank may not be disturbed in such a contingency when ~~chances~~ chances are so given.

2) The ordinary rules that the Probationary Asst Commrs. should pass all the prescribed tests during the period of 2 years was relaxed on the application of Mr. Raghavendra Rao & others. According to the rule so relaxed, Mr. Raghavendra Rao ~~is entitled to~~ has 3 chances for passing the tests viz 1918, 1919, & 1920.

3) If in these chances he does not pass all the tests, he will be allowed a further year's grace i.e. he will have one chance or two chances for passing the remaining tests in this period according as the tests are held once or twice a year (there is a proposal to hold tests twice a year) was passed in June 1919, under which Mein succes in the exams held in May 1920 cowed be reckoned as succes before Jan'y 20 for purpose of confirmation &c.

c) It does not make any difference whether mr Raghavendrarao joined as a probationer in Jan'y 18 or march 18. After all for purpose of studying for the exams he was quite as well off as while working in the Education dept as he would have been in the Rev dept.

d) His illness at the time of exams in 1919 was no doubt a misfortune, but I do not think he can get special concession on that account. He has had a good chance of passing the tests this year & he ought to take that chance. If he does not get through his tests this year he may deserve sympathy but I do not think it will be fair to other officers to let him take a year or two more to pass the tests & still retain his relative rank.

SIR,

I have the honour to forward herewith for the orders of Government a representation from Mr. B.S. Raghavendra Rao, -- Probationary Assistant Commissioner, under training in this office.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

T. Satyaraj Chetty

Comptroller.

CV/6-5

To

C.S.Balasundaram Iyer, Esq., B.A.,

Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

Bangalore.

Sir,

I beg to submit my representation regarding my confirmation for the favourable consideration and orders of Government.

I was appointed Probationery Assistant Commissioner on 18th January 1918 after passing the Mysore Civil Service Examination held in 1917. At the time of my appointment I was in the Education Department and as no suitable reliever could be found I was kept on there till 16th March 1918, in spite of my requests that my continuance in the Education Department would not allow me to receive the training required to enable me to appear for departmental examinations, success in which is a necessary condition for confirmation and retention of my rank. I was therefore able to report myself for taluk training only on 2nd April 1918. I had then barely one month for study and preparation for the ensuing departmental examination. Last year I had a very serious attack of typhoid which kept me in bed from 5rd March 1919 till about the middle of June. I could not therefore sit even for that examination. It was late in the year before I was fit for strenuous work.

Thus of the three chances allowed for me for passing the departmental tests I could not avail myself of the first since I was kept on in the Education Department and of the second by causes beyond my control.

I have since been transferred to the Comptroller's

Office

Office and am receiving training in Audit and Account procedure. I have now to sit for four tests this year, the stiffest of those prescribed and if by mischance I am to fail in even one of them it is likely that I will lose my place in the Civil List and be superseded by about 16 people who are now my juniors in the list. All my future prospects will thus be barred for no fault of mine. To avoid any possible mischance of the kind indicated above, I beg that Government will be pleased to give me two more chances so as to place me on an equal footing with my colleagues appointed or nominated with me and to allow me to retain my place till I have had these two chances. I beg to assure Government in this connection that I shall put forth my very best efforts to secure a pass in all the subjects, but I submit this representation only to meet a contingency which, however remote, may, I apprehend, - mar all my prospects of confirmation and promotion, in case it should arise.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

B. S. Raghavendra Rao
